

Summer Reading for AP United States Government

Obtain from the Upper School Office and read and annotate the two packets.

There is no additional writing or research assignment associated with the packets, but students are expected to complete them carefully and thoroughly and be prepared for a quiz on the first day of class.